Around the school are posters made by an artist, each from a country in the EU. These posters have been set up to celebrate the European Elections on 6th -9th June.

Instructions:

- Go around the senior school and hunt for the 27 posters. On each poster is a unique slogan and a number.
- Write down the slogan for each country's poster on the other side of this sheet.
- Work out the secret message

Hand in this sheet into the ballot box by the Library by: 10.30am, Tuesday 11th June

PRIZES: (edible and non-edible)

- The winning team with the most filled in answer sheet will win. If there are multiple completed sheets, then they will be put into a draw and the winning one will be picked randomly.
- The team with the best Europe inspired name
- The team with the best answer to the question: what does democracy mean to you?
